FOREWORD

Herewith is presented to the eye a mission lesson through a pictorial series of the mission stations of the Foreign Mission Board, including schools, hospitals, churches, workers and natives.

These pictures cover a part of the work in West Africa, East Africa, South Africa, the Bahama Islands, and Central America.

The work in West Africa includes the Pilgrim Station in Nigeria, where there are many churches and a total school enrollment of over 4,000.

Stations in Liberia consist of Suehn, Bendoo, Grand Bassa, and the Carrie V. Dyer Memorial Hospital, at Monrovia; and we are now cooperating with the Liberian Baptists in support of Ricks Institute.

In South Africa, the W. W. Brown Memorial Station, in the vicinity of Johannesburg, is constituted of schools and outlying churches. The schools carry an enrollment of 1,552 students.

In East Africa, the Providence Industrial Mission comprises more than a dozen brick structures and a fine hospital. There are more than 1,000 churches and some 5,000 students.

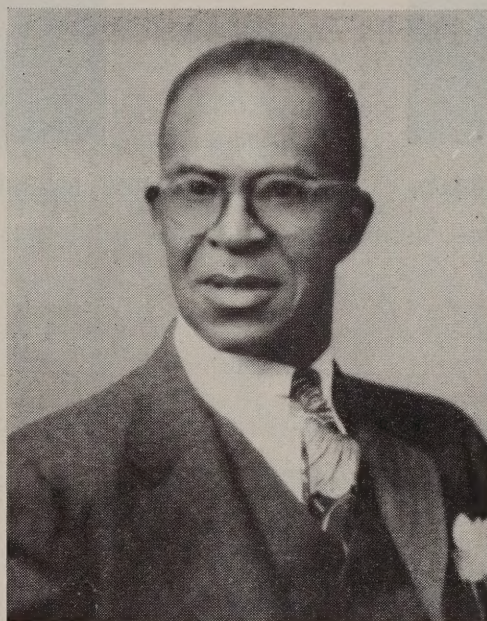

In the Bahama Islands, the Jordan Memorial Baptist Training School is in operation with more than 500 pupils. We also maintain an inter-island mission setup.

A building has been completed at a cost of $35,000.00.

We are also helping the work of our brethren of British Guiana.

We have reclaimed our station in Nicaragua, the Jordan Memorial Mission.

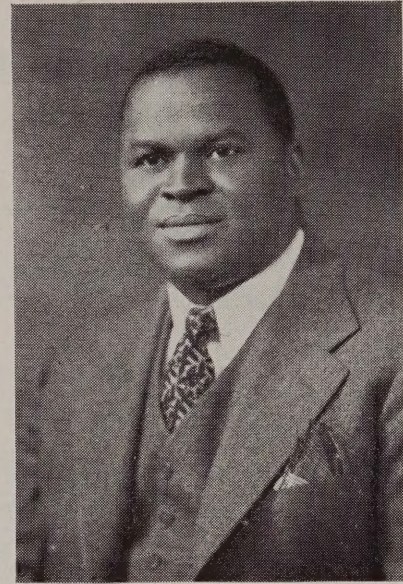

We are cooperating with the Foreign Missions Conference of North America in the founding of a Japanese Christian University and underwritten the beginning with $20,000.00.

She was one month old when adopted by Rev. and Mrs. Cyrus. She is now fourteen years old and will be a student at Mather School, Beaufort, S. C.

THE CHAPEL AT BENDOO

Bendo Mission is located on Fisherman's Lake, a very large lake on which Pan American Airways had a base during the war.

MAIN BUILDING AND DORMITORY AT BENDOO

The building was erected by the late Rev. J. S.
Cyrus of stone, which the children—boys and girls —broke and carried. The lime for cement was made by Rev. Cyrus and the children. Mrs. Cyrus directed the breaking and carrying of the stones, while Rev.
Cyrus and some of the boys laid them.

MISSIONARY GRAVES AT BENDOO

In Africa the grasses grow
Upon the grave mounds, row on row,
That mark their place.

To us, from failing hands,
They threw the torch.
Be ours to hold it high,
If we break faith with those who die,
On us the shame,
For Christ doth yearn for Africa.

A BENDOO GIRL AND HER HUSBAND now working at Bendoo. This girl's mother died in childbirth. There were twins. One died and this one was rescued from death by a missionary. She was sent to Suehn, where she remained till sixth grade; then she went with Rev. and Mrs. Cyrus to help them. She has married and has a fine son. God rescued her, body and soul.

God bless this hospital and those fine women and girls who care for the sick and give them hope by lovingly serving them.

"He that would be great among you, let him be a servant of all."

He was not willing that any should perish.

Jesus, enthroned in glory above,

Saw our poor, fallen world,

Pitied our sorrow;

Poured out His life for us,

Wonderful love!

A refuge, where many sick and suffering bodies are healed; there many a hopeless one has found strength and courage to look up and begin again.

AURELIA WEEKS, STUDENT NURSE

SUEHN INDUSTRIAL ACADEMY

Enlarge the place of thy tents, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: Spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

Jesus is calling, is calling to you.
"Haste thee, my child, my work waits for thee.
Lo! In my vineyard there's work yet to do;
Come, labor there with me!

"White are the fields and the workers are needed.
Shall some be lost while the call goes unheeded?
Forth to the work—it is no time to sleep!
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, My Presence shall keep."

"Hark, 'tis the Saviour, He's calling for you,
"Look! In My vineyard there's work yet to do,"

M. MAE DAVIS,
Principal, Suehn Industrial Academy

GLADYS V. EAST

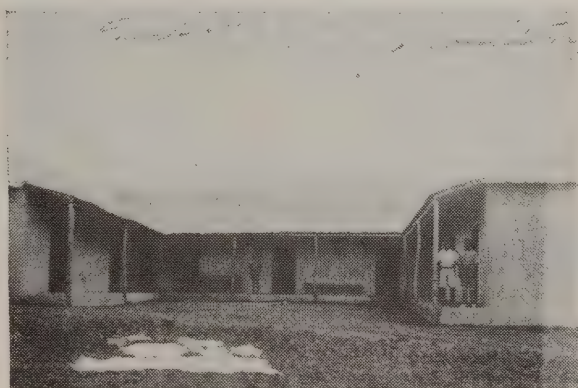

Daughter of those great missionaries, Dr. and Mrs. James E. East. She is walking in their footprints. She, too, will be one of God's great souls. She has dedicated herself to Christ for use and service to the great and needy vineyard of Liberia.

DR. AND MRS. D. S. MALEKEBU

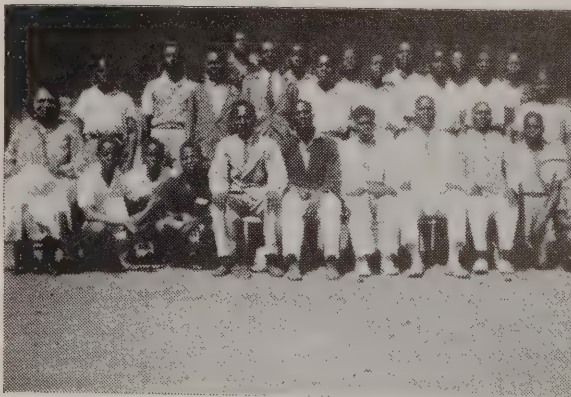

DR. D. S. MALEKEBU

Educated and trained in this country, he returned to his native land and is doing a great work in Christianizing and uplifting his people. He has built a hospital, a school and a church. It is the largest church building and has the largest membership of any of our churches in Africa. God bless these two bearers of light.

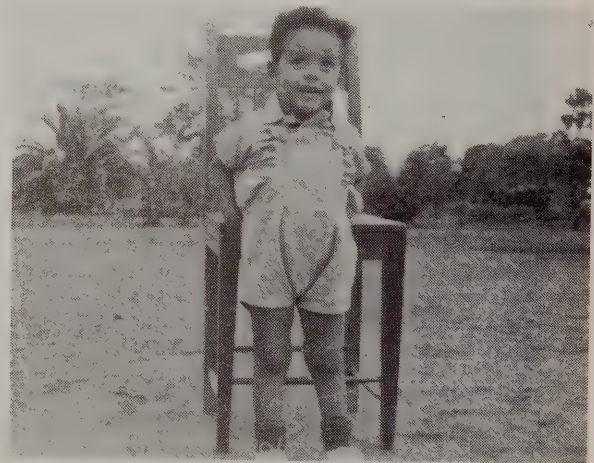

MRS. FLORA E. MALEKEBU

A native of Africa, was also educated in America. She is a great power for good in Nyasaland. Working in loving harmony with her husband, she gathers in the women and girls, teaches and trains them. The neglected, the forgotten, the outcast ones are given hope and light and joy.

They looked unto Him and were radiant; and their faces shall never be confounded.—Ps. 34:5.

GETTING READY TO DANCE THE "BEN"
on Christmas Day, 1947. Many people come to P. I. M. from all missions and other places to enjoy the Christmas celebration given by Dr. and Mrs. Malekebu.

TEACHERS—Dr. and Mrs. Malekebu have trained the young men who are teaching others.
"Ye are the light of the world . . . a city that is set on a hill."

Mrs. D. S. Malekebu.

They are trained by Mrs. Malekebu. All are Christians except young Lenora (with x). All can wash, iron, cook and sew very well, and keep house. Mrs. Malekebu and baby Daniel Howard Malekebu are with them.

RECREATION TIME

Here in Nyasaland, the people have been taught to come to Providence Mission and enjoy games, races, dancing and sports of all sorts. Here some are diving for pieces of silver money in a large basin or water with their mouths. Hands are tied behind them. Christmas Day, 1947.

DANCING THE "BEN," CHRISTMAS DAY, 1947 at Providence Industrial Mission. Many people are made happy on this day, every year. Beginning in 1926, when we first arrived, and in 1944 to date, our motto always: "Less of Self and More of Others."
